

The Marshall Christian

A Word from Reverend Randal...

June
General Board meeting will be on the 14th
at 6:00 PM.

Sally and I are on the downhill stretch. We are just days away from completing our move to Marshall.

The process of moving has brought up many great memories of good people, times, and places. There are a few not so good memories, but thank God time has a way of erasing or at least softening those negative feelings. There are many souvenirs of victories won, awards given, and places seen that bring those memories into focus as well. The pictures of loved ones both passed and present are wonderful to bring back those memories.

The down side of all of this is that the memories slow down the packing and the souvenirs themselves need to be packed.

The problem is truly all of the stuff. Too much stuff. Too much to pack, tote, and find a new place in the new house.

The Bible talks of making sure we seek the right stuff. The stuff that brings true salvation, not the stuff that the world cares about. You already know about the spiritual stuff we are after.

With these thoughts comes a problem. As I pack I need to decide what can and ought to go the way of the world and what will keep my heart and mind on spiritual things.

Please pray for me with this and wish a lot of good luck.

Blessings,
Rev. Randal
